

NineSquare

Arrange these pieces into a  $3 \times 3$  grid so that each row, column, and main, (corner-to-corner,) diagonal contains exactly five black squares, and the black squares are all in one connected group. (That is, it is possible to get from any black square to any other by a sequence of steps through vertically or horizontally adjacent squares.)

For more info about this and other puzzles from High Speed Collision Games, visit our website at:

<http://hscgames.com>

